619 N Florida Avenue | Lakeland, FL 33803

SIGNALIZED, EXPANDABLE CORNER

For Sale or Build-to-Suit

This high-traffic corner in downtown Lakeland is expected to be the site of the first gas station, drug store and fast-food restaurants to serve the downtown core of 7,000 employees of Publix, FedEx, the City, and Lakeland Regional Medical Center. This section of George Jenkins Boulevard is also the In-Town By-Pass for US Highway 98, creating a traffic count of 31,000 vehicles per day. The site offers access to North Florida Avenue, North Massachusetts Avenue and Parker Street. The City has blessed the idea of closing the side streets as shown in order to enlarge this corner piece.

The City is supportive of new businesses and has purchased the surrounding properties in order to assure the proper development of this entire block.

The City property is available for sale. Potential build-to-suit and lease is available to triple-A tenants
